Attorney McFadden, junior, was in Toledo last Sunday.

The heavy rains of last Saturday night caused a few incipient slides along the railroad.

The celebrated Parker and Snag Proof gum boots at O'Brien's, Yaquina.

We acknowledge a pleasant call from J. T. Chitwood, of Chitwood, on Monday of this week.

Lee Wade and L. M. Starr are employed by County Clerk Jones in preparing a duplicate of the delinquent roll.

Miss Clara Bethers, of Philomath, is visiting at the family of her uncle, Prof. Geo. Bethers, of this city, arriving yesterday.

Wm. Hammond, of Newport, more familiarly known as "Butch" Hammond, is reported to be dangerously ill, with very few chances for recovery.

George Sylvester has taken down the instruments and entirely discontinued his telephone line for the present. He expects to put in new instruments about the first of the year.

The regular freight train was headed down, and was compelled to break in two to get over the mountains, making an extra trip for half the train. Forty loaded cars were brought in, the most of them being loaded with wheat.

Another special school meeting has been called by the directors to hold on Saturday, October 21, at 1 o'clock p. m., at which time it is hoped that some way may be devised whereby our school will be enabled to start up at an early date.

The agency has a new physician in the person of Dr. Thos. F. Mulhane, recently from Marietta, Ohio. Dr. Mulhane is a graduate from a Baltimore medical college and comes well recommended. He has already assumed the duties of his charge.

Ed. Barwick, the Yaquina butcher, was arrested last Friday upon the charge of selling diseased meat, it being alleged that he had killed a sick hog and sold the meat to his customers. He was tried before Squire Parker on Saturday and was discharged, there being no evidence sufficient to establish the charge. Attorney McFadden, a recently admitted member of the bar appeared for the state and F. D. Carson, of this city for the defense.

The school meeting held at the school house last Saturday failed to take any action further than to discuss the matter and adjourn. The day was so stormy that there was a very small number of electors of the district in attendance. We understand that the directors will call another meeting at an early date, when it will be possible to have a complete statement of the resources and liabilities of the district, and also a list of the taxable property upon which a tax can be levied.

The Corvallis Times jumps onto ex-treasurer Shipley, of the Agricultural college for depositing state funds in Hamilton, Job & Co.'s bank. It might have been wrong, and no doubt was, for Mr. Shipley to deposit the money there, but why jump onto a dead man? It is no secret to the Times as to what influence was used to induce or compel Mr. Shipley to deposit that money there. But the men who absolutely converted that money to their own private use to pay an account at Ladd & Tilton's bank, live in the same town that the Times is published in. Jump onto them, friend Irvine, and don't play the ghoul act by attacking a man after he is in the grave.

F. M. Stanton has again taken up his residence on his farm, removing there from the reservation.

That long hoped for sidewalk leading to the court house is now under construction.

The Salem Statesman, in speaking of a boat race, gravely announces that "the winning boat came out ahead."

The Willamette river has been on the rise for a few days, registering at one time fourteen feet above low water mark. The O. P. has placed a boat on the up-river route and will carry freight to and from Eugene and intermediate points.

We were made to say last week that district court for Lincoln county would convene on Monday, November 20th. We should have stated on Monday, November 27th, or the 4th Monday in November and the 3rd Monday in May.

Hon. James Ball, the sage of Newport, went out to Corvallis this morning in a special coach. That is, we suppose it was special, as the gentleman named was the only occupant when the train went through here.

Judge D. P. Blue doffed his judicial ermine last Thursday for a brief vacation and hid himself eastward on his long expected trip to the World's fair and boyhood scenes in the old Sucker state of Illinois. He will be absent about a month.

Edison favors the scheme of compressing a bushel of wheat into a small space and stamping it a dollar. He says that if a man gets hungry he can then soak his dollar and get something to eat. That's nothing. We "soaked" our watch once and got something to eat.

Rev. A. L. Hawley, the new Methodist minister for this circuit, and wife arrived in Toledo last evening accompanied by their household goods, and will take up their residence here. We cordially welcome Mr. and Mrs. Hawley to our town.

B. F. Wade has received permission from the department to set up a sutler's store on the reservation, and has forwarded his bond to the department and will soon blossom out as a full fledged sutler. We are glad to see him in this position and wish him abundant success in his new undertaking.

A special train went outside Monday evening bearing Attorney Gest and wife, Capt. Storrs, master of the Willamette Valley, Chief Engineer Quigley and others who were enroute to Portland to appear at the libel suit against the schooner Alice Blanchard, which went on the sand at Newport last spring, in which the Oregon Pacific company is interested.

Hon. Beal Gaither got his official bond as agent at the Siletz filled and approved by the United States district attorney, and the same has been forwarded to the department. He obtained his bondsmen easily without going outside of Lincoln and Benton counties. As soon as his bond is approved by the department he will assume the duties of his office, which will probably be in about two weeks.

The Corvallis Times of last week, and the week before, made an attack upon the outrageous incident of the Job failure. Of course the Times was very careful about the way it went at it, but it took recognition of the matter which is a good deal. We are glad to see the Times awakening to this matter. It was a shameful outrage upon the people and demands the exposure and condemnation of the public press.

As will be seen it the county court proceeding elsewhere, the commissioners have made the levy for county and school purposes for the ensuing year. The valuation of the property on the assessment roll amounts to about $1,200,000, and the county levy of ten mills is expected to raise $10,000 for county purposes and the school levy of five mills to raise a fund of at least $5,000, these funds being over and above the probable delinquencies which will naturally appear at collection time. The school fund, in connection with the state apportionment will amount to about $5,000 per scholar. The tax roll will be better shaped than ever before. Assessor Parker sparing no pains to make a correct description in his assessments. This will add greatly to the total of the list, as on the old roll there were a great number of double and wrong assessments. The levies are the same as were made by Benton county last year.

Bro. J. E. Mathews was up from Newport last Tuesday.

Judge Burt was down from Elk City one day this week gazing on old scenes.

Commissioners Stearns and Trapp have been transacting the business of commissioner's court without the assistance of Judge Blue since last Thursday, and have agreed admirably. They completed their labors and adjourned for the term yesterday. The term just closed has been one of the busiest terms yet held, and more business was transacted than at any previous term.

In a talk with County Commissioner J. O. Stearns yesterday, he informed us that the county's interests in the various cases in which the county is a party were being looked after in a diligent manner. The matter of the delinquent rail road tax was argued and submitted to Judge Fullerton at Corvallis last April, and since that time has been under advisement by the court, and as he has indicated to no one this side of the mountains as to what time he will become fully advised upon the subject, it can only be conjectured when a decision will be rendered and what it will be. The matter of the school fund apportionment in which Lincoln county asks a writ of mandamus compelling the school superintendent of Benton county to apportion the school funds as by law required, was argued on a demurrer made by Benton county's attorneys and their demurrer was sustained. It is the intention of the attorneys for Lincoln county to either amend their pleadings and go forward, or take it direct to the supreme court on the present pleadings. The matter of taxes collected by the sheriff of Benton county off of property in Lincoln county is being gotten in shape and action will be taken thereon before the next term of district court for Lincoln county convenes. Messrs. Wetherford and Chamberlain, of Albany, one of the leading law firms of the state, the latter being the attorney-general of Oregon, are the attorneys for Lincoln county in all pending cases, and express their utmost confidence in winning all the issues set up by Lincoln county.
